HE EXPECTS A COMPROMISE. Secretary Morton Has Something to Say on Silver and Populists.

WASHINGTON, June 28 .- The Star this evening has a long interview with Secretary J. Sterling Morton on the subject of the populist agitation and the financial question in politics. The secretary expresses the opinion that the populist party presses the opinion that the populist party is disintegrating, and the democratic party, being committed to policies not in accord with the teachings of the populists, cannot have an alliance with them. The secretary said that he did not know whether or not the advocates of the repeal of the Sherman law would have to accept a compromise. He hoped for the repeal of the law and saw no objection to t tion to the repeal of the 10 per cent. tax

WILL PLAY NO MORE. Mrs. Florence Decides to Quit the Stage

Butte, June 23.—Mrs. Florence has ed her season and has cancelled all her remaining engagements. This after-noon she and her company left for New York by the Northern Pacific, where the company will disband. Mrs. Florence seems to have hearkened to the advice of some of her true friends, that, great as she once was as an actress, she cannot act now, and should be content to leave the stage before her great reputation is overshadowed by her recent lamentable failure. Her appearance on the stage was failure. Her appearance on the stage was a whim that seized her in her old age, and in consequence, her fortune has been rapidly disappearing. By quitting without further experiments, she will still have sufficient to live comfortably.

While poor business and bad acting had something to do with ending her tour, Mrs. Florence has really been very ill since she came to Butte. For some mouths she has suffered a complication of ailments, including severe neuralgia, and hip and spine diseases, and her permanent retirement from the stage will doubtless result from that, if from no other reasons. Mrs. Florence and husband will visit the fair upon their arrival in Chicago and then go to New York, from which city they will sail for Europe in the hope of benefiting her health. Before leaving, Mrs. Florence presented Manager Maguire with a valuable pin as a remembrance of the late and lamented Billy Florence, to whom the pin formerly belonged.

STRUCK WITH A SHOVEL. Patrick Meancy Causes the Arrest of BUTTE, June 23.—The case of the state against Nick France for assault on Patrick Meaney was tried before Judge Naughten this afternoon. Meaney's story, as told on the stand, is that he went to the Colorado Smelter to obtain a duplicate certificate of ore, which his brother had certificate of ore, which his brother had taken to the smelter. He had three times previously gone to the smelter during the week and had met with no interference. He had passed through the gate and was nearing the office, when France the watchman, rushed up behind him and struck him on the shoulder with a shovel handle. He struck at him twice more, but Meaney warded off the blows with his arm and then took the weapon away. France then ran away. Meaney went on to the office, transacted his business and then had a warrant sworm up-town for France's arrest. The case will be completed to-morrow.

PETER WAS SCARED.

BUTTE, June 23 .- Peter Mundy, one of the proprietors of the Tunnel saloon in East Park street, had a scare from burhad closed up his saloon and was asleep in bed with his sack of money between his knees and his watch under his pillow. He was awakened by his back door being nashed in and a window pane crashing mashed in and a window pane crashing. He saw a burglar entering and did not wait to make inquiries. He escaped by the front door in his night dross and bare feet, jumped into the muddy street and gave the alarm in an energetic manner. Deputy Sheriff Tucker lives near by and he, with a number of neighbors, rushed to his assistance. The burglars were driven away but could not be captured. Mr. Mundy's money and watch were found all right.

SCARED THE BOYS.

They Thought For a Moment That Johnny's Place Was Doomed. BUTTE, June 23 .- A small fire broke out in Heyman & Curran's saloon about midnight, the electric light wires, it is thought, setting fire to the ceiling. The fire was extinguished by those present without calling the department.

BUTTE, June 23.—The case of W. L. Led-ford vs. Sheriff Reynolds, for unlawful seizure of goods, was tried before Judge Colman this afternoon. It seems the goods belonged originally to Mrs. Moore and according to the plaintiff's story, he was to have the goods in consideration of taking care of Mrs. Moore's child. Some-time afterward, Mrs. Moore got out a search warrant and the property was turned over to the court. Ledford now sues the sheriff for the goods. The case was taken under advisement and decision will be rendered to-morrow.

Butte's Columbian Fourth Will Surpas All Previous Efforts. BUTTE, June 23.—The Fourth of July boom is on, the committees are active and there is going to be a celebration that will discount anything of the kind in the northwest. The committees are composed of workers only and they are thoroughly at work. As Captain Shepherd remarked in his eloquent harangue at the joint meeting of the committees this morning, no one is wanted who sleeps 22 hours out of the 24, and spends the rest of his time eating a big porterhouse steak with a bone in the middle.

You could smell gunpowder at the joint neeting of the committees held at Dr. Howard's office this morning. They were all there, and the plans for the celebraall there, and the plans for the celebration were got into pretty good shape.

It was decided to have a parade in the morning, followed by exercises of an oratorical character, and to have fireworks in the evening. It is proposed to have three bands in the parade. The bands will probably be the Boston & Montana, the Silver Bow and the Orton. The committee on music includes Messrs. Grey, Vivian and Hauswirth. The Boston & Montana band has received offers to attend celebrations in Anaconda and Deer Lodge, but will probably accept the Butte invitation.

Major Hornbrook was decided on as marshal of the day. The marshal is not in town and may not be here. If he is not, Wilden Pinkham will be marshal. Lavell's Wilden Pinkham will be marshal. Laveil's big wagon, to be drawn by six horses, was engaged to-day for the car of state. It will be elaborately decorated, and the ladies will be dressed in costumes representing the various states of the union. The Daughters of America will turn out in another big rig.

The exercises of the day will be held on a stand to be erected opposite the High school building. The president of the day will be Mayor E. O. Dugan. The committee decided to request Hon. Loe Mantle to deliver the oration of the day. Miss Ina Stoner will recite the Declaration of Independence, having committed it to memory.

pendence, having committed it to memory.

There is still much work for the soliciting committees to do. Less than $2,000 has been raised, but the committees have been actively at work this afternoon and it is believed they will have enough by the end of the week for all needs, and will be able to discount last year's celebration.

Wilden Pinkham is chairman of the committee on fireworks and decorations, the other members being Ben Calkins, James Brown and Col. Jenks. The fireworks will be set off as soon as it is dark on the knoll in the northwestern part of the city, the same place as last year. The fireworks display will be of surpassing grandeur.

The city government will decorate the

The city government will decorate the city hall and the other city buildings, and will furnish the hacks for the city officials and aldermen in the parade.

Captain Shepherd will engage the young ladies for the car of state.

Butte will have a celebration that will be heard and seen all over Montana. Invitations are extended to the people of the entire state to rally in the metropolis on the Fourth and give a Montana boom to the stars and stripes.

To-day he held court until near midnight, trying the case of John McKeechney against J. B. Battego. The suit was over a breach of contract, the defendant having bound himself to sink a 100-foot shaft on the Manhattan lode claim, the plaintiff to furnish the machinery. After sinking 61 feet he gave the job up, on the plea that the machinery furnished was no good. McKeechney had the work completed at a cost of $370, for which amount he sued Battego. The case was given to the jury at 11:15 this evening, and it was past midnight when they brought in a sealed verdict, which will be opened to-morrow.
